*No One Is Wise
Enough Alone*

Sachem 1957

Poem

"NO ONE IS WISE ENOUGH ALONE"

Into a world of greed and hope and strife,
A world where good and evil war and never cease,
We enter now to start another life;
We leave a world of books and play and peace.

We leave behind us friendships warm and true,
Glad days of laughter, youth, and joyous song,
Of pleasant goals achieved, of knowledge new;
Fond memories that will linger deep and long.

But yet with hope we face the coming years,
Bright plans for future tasks and youthful schemes.
We pray that life will mix the laughter with the tears,
And give us friends with whom to share our dreams.

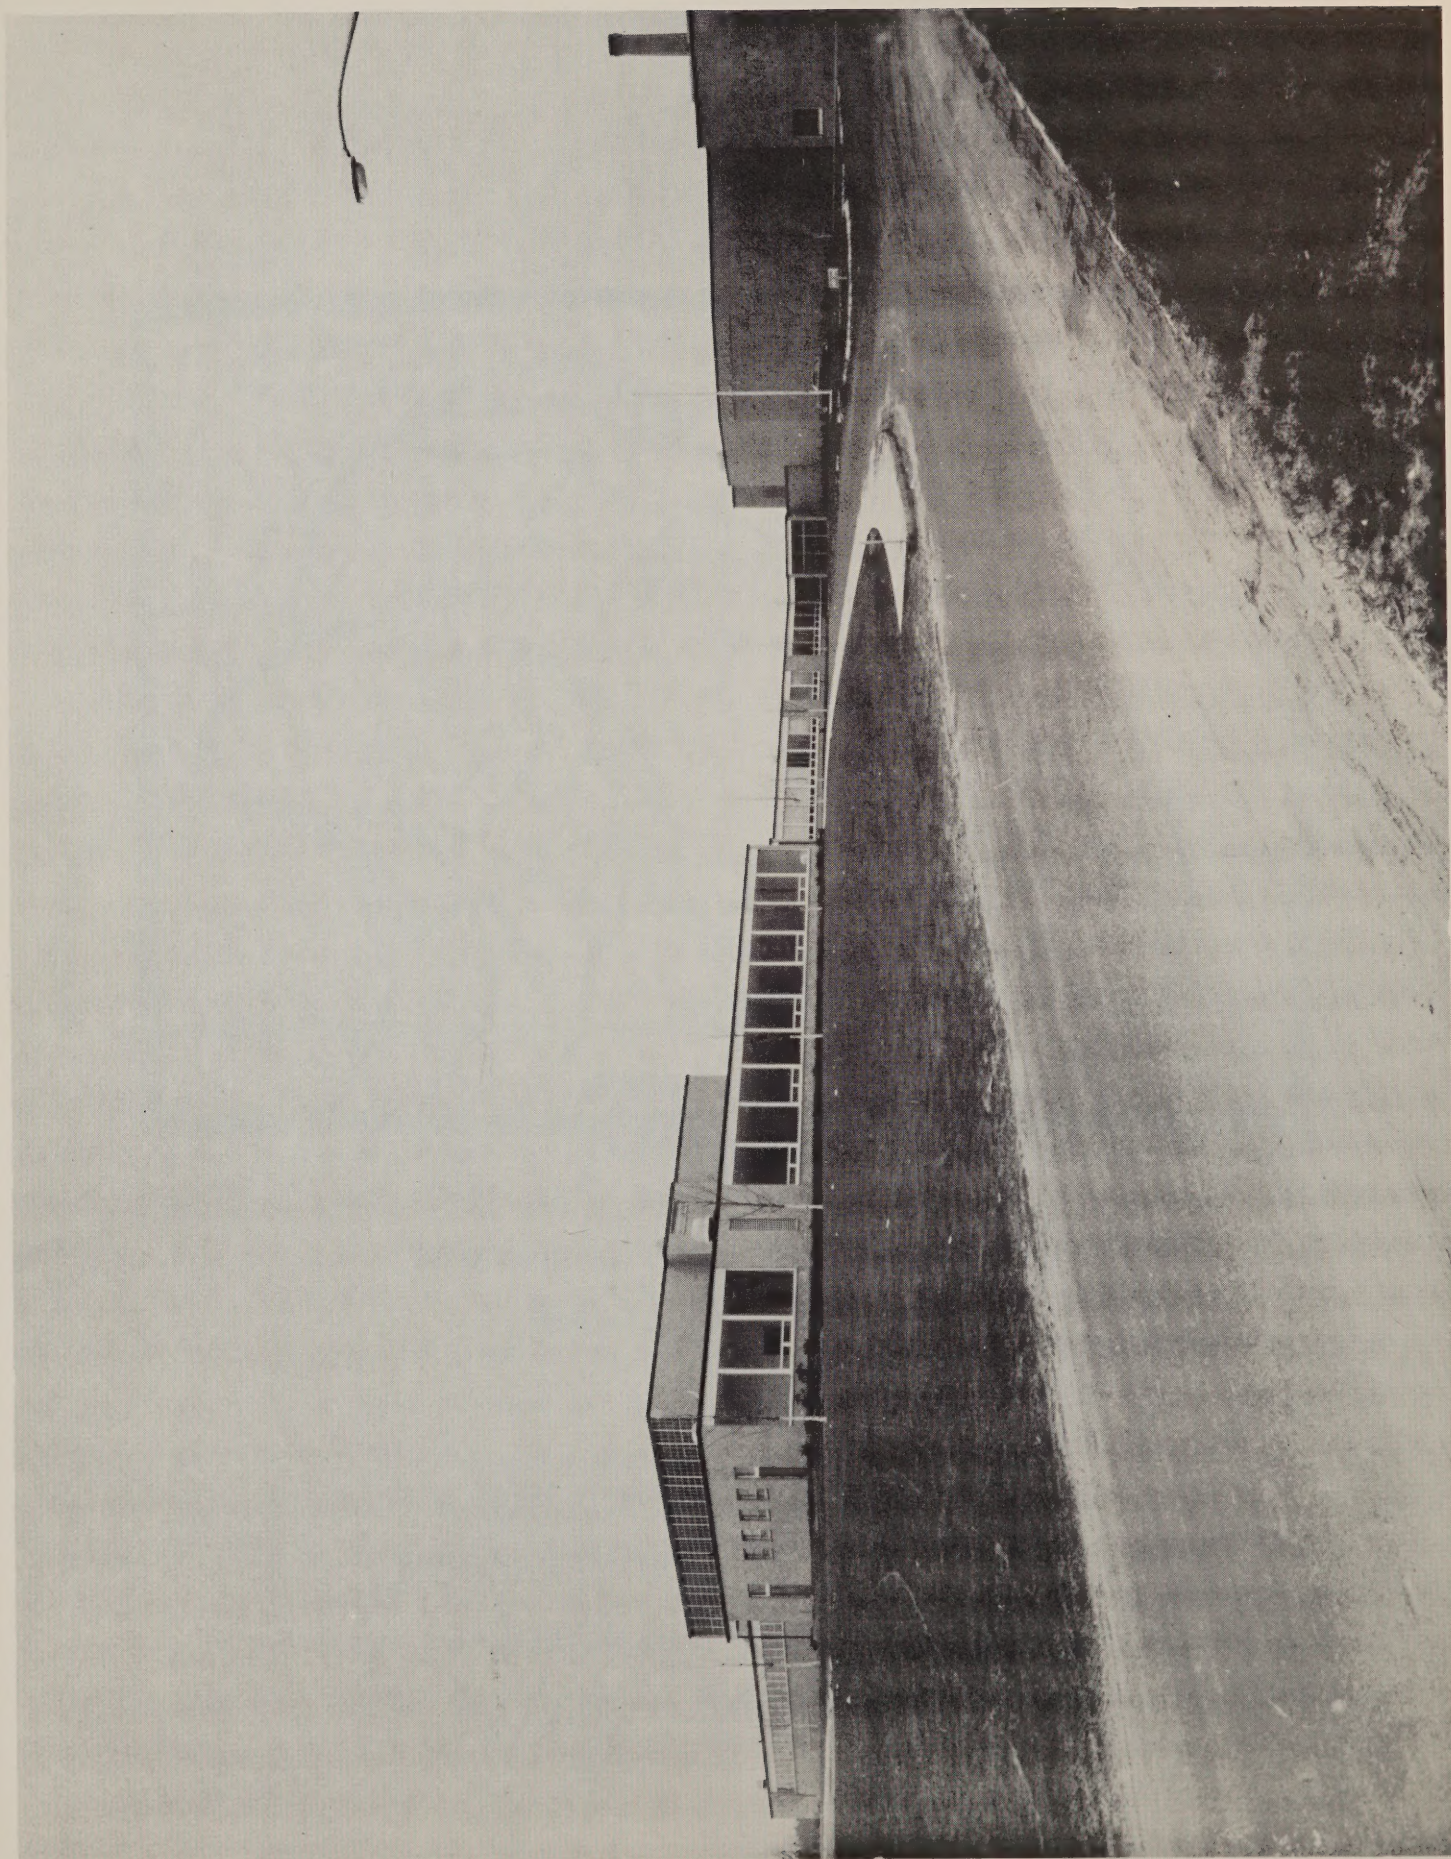

Carved in our hearts like letters carved in stone,
We read, "No one is wise enough alone."

— Lawrence Sherlaw

History

Time: Three years after graduation from high school.

Scene: Hospital
(Eddie meets Celine, a nurse, in the hall and asks . . .)

Eddie: How's the other half coming along?

Celine: Your wife's progressing very rapidly, considering how badly you beat her. You really shouldn't have hit Mary over the head with the mop and kicked her in the shins just because she burned your supper.

Eddie: I just lost my head. I ought to be used to burned suppers al la carte by now.
(Eddie walks into Mary's room)

Eddie: Hello wench, boy do you look terrible!

Mary: Well, what did you expect, miracles?

Eddie: Yes, I suppose it's just natural for you to look like that.
(Just then someone stumbles into the room.)

Roger: Oooooooh, Oooooooh! Oh, excuse me, I'm in the wrong room.

Eddie: Hey, Mary, look, it's Alphie! Alphie old pal, what hit ya?

Roger: Oh, hi, Ed. You don't know what I've been up against. (sob, sob) I've been on the college football team now for four years, and finally my big moment came. The coach called me to his side and said, "Rog, old boy, I want you to go out there and get that extra point; they'd never expect you to carry the ball." I felt the importance and the responsibility they were entrusting in me, and as I was running onto the field, the water pail got in my way. The next thing I knew, I was in the hospital with a broken head. Oooooooh, my poor beautiful head!

Mary: Nasty break, kid.

Eddie: Yea, that poor water pail.
(Celine walks into the room.)

Celine: I was just leaving and came in to say goodbye. Rickey Letendre is picking me up and we're both going to Miss Miller's wedding.
(At this time, Ricky is just about to enter the room.)

Ricky: Whoops! Well, if it isn't good old Anna Demichele. What are you doing crawling around on the floor?

Anna: Oh, I'm just working my way through college scrubbing floors.

Celine: Come on in you two, and see the happily married couple.
(Everybody is in Mary's room now.)

Anna: Gee Ed, I thought I'd never see the day that you and Mary would really get hitched. I remember when you two first started going together in our Freshman year at high school.

Eddie: Yea, those were the good old days, when you used to chase Wally Bubien down the hall and Charlie Grasso was so much in love with Charlie Grasso.

Ricky: Remember our first class meeting in room twenty-six, in the old school. We were really crazy, mixed-up kids then, especially when we elected none other than that confused, but genial guy, Gerry O'Keefe as our first class president. Patty Arnold was Vice-President that year, and little Anna Demichele was our competent secretary; the honorable position of treasurer was filled in by the scrupulous Jackie Phillips.

- Celine:* We really would have been in a disastrous situation when our class adviser, Mrs. Sherman, got sick, if Miss Hastings and Mr. Leonardi hadn't pitched in and helped us to organize the most successful Freshman Party ever put on in the Agawam High School.
- Anna:* Besides having a successful party, we also had an enthusiastic freshman cheering squad (I was on it) with Ann Descoteaux, Patty Arnold, Bev Grant, Shirley Pond, and Marilyn Masure.
- Roger:* The class of "57" was really lucky in their sophomore year; that's the year I entered Agawam High. I do hope you haven't forgotten that terrific Sophomore Party, "Les Fleurs Des Paris"; the girls sat on one side of the hall, and the boys on the other. Despite that fact, the dance was by no means a failure; probably you can recall my courageous attempt to do a bop number with Joyce Marieb, and the drastic results.
- Eddie:* If I recollect rightly, that was the year Tommy Trongone started educating his cool cats on how to bop, and the exciting romance between Charlie Grasso and Cynthia Tricinella went on.
- Ricky:* Our four class officers in our Sophomore year were capable Anthony Saracino, President; Terry Cardone, Vice President; attractive Irene West, Secretary; and clever Gerry Casiello, Treasurer. (The Big Four)
- Celine:* Miss Phelps had the envious job of class adviser for our last three years in high school, and she did a commendable job of pulling our class through the rough spots.
- Mary:* In our Junior year we had to move into that two million dollar brain factory. Our class really made history that year by electing a girl president, Mona Moretti. That just goes to show that the girls are getting smarter all the time and the boys had better watch out. The rest of the crew were Patty Arnold, Vice President; Judy Clark, Secretary; and Gerry Cas-iello, Treasurer.
- Anna:* Our Junior Cabaret was a big social success, but we didn't make any profit on it, so to replenish our meager treasury, we put on the comical basketball game between the Varsity players and the Junior girls. The gym really rocked with laughter that night, and the Junior class was rolling in the green.
- Celine:* Everybody worked hard and exerted their dusty and unused brains to the utmost on preparations for the Junior-Senior Prom, "Twilight Over Tara." Terry Cardone, chairman of decorations, and her committee did an elaborate job of transforming our new and gigantic gym into a beautiful plantation setting. I don't think the kids who went to that Prom will ever forget all the fun they had that night, especially later when they all went out to eat.
- Roger:* I'll never forget how gorgeous Beverly Grant looked the night she and Gerry Casiello were Junior Marshals for the class of "56". Seeing those Seniors graduate reminded a lot of us that we had only one more year to make the most of our high school days and to get into as much mischief as we could without being caught.
- Ricky:* Finally we reached our goal, to be GREAT BIG SENIORS. My good old cousin, Tommy Letendre became President; Pat Arnold and Judy Clark were re-elected for the position of Vice President and Secretary respectively; and poor Gerry O'Keefe had the horrible job of collecting three dollars, class dues, from every senior.
- Eddie:* Remember the first time we all wore our class hats to assembly! If anyone had said that they didn't like the class hats, I think Anna would have nailed them to the ground and beaten them to a pulp. She really worked hard to get the best class hats for the least amount of money and succeeded in getting her way with the poor unfortunate man who had to make the hats.
- Mary:* Mr. Dacey looked the cutest in his little beanie; we should have given him a lollipop, and he would have looked even cuter.
- Anna:* Bev Grant had a little difficulty in getting the kids to choose the class colors; some of the more ingenious boys wanted black and white or black and blue, but we finally ended up with the more common, but practical colors of blue and silver.
- Roger:* Mr. Wright also had a troublesome time when he took our individual class pictures. He didn't have too many good subjects to work with, but when the kids received their pictures back, boy! did they complain. Every girl probably thought she was as glamorous as Marilyn Monroe, and the boys must have thought they were as handsome as I am.
- Mary:* The most exciting times I remember from my high school days were the football games. Our two fighting halfbacks, Charlie Grasso and Ed Govoni, together with the formidable Tommy Trongone, Gerry O'Keefe, Wally Bubien and Richie White in the line, made any opponent afraid to come in contact with them. Our enthusiastic cheerleaders, Ann Descoteaux, Patty Arnold, Terry Cardone, Marianne DePalo, Beverly Grant, and Shirley Pond also contributed a great deal to the noise, excitement and color of those Saturday battles. Of course, I couldn't leave out our band and color guard and the majorettes, led by skillful Mary Farina.

Ricky: The Senior's private party, when we all dressed like kids and "let our hair down," was one of the funniest nights to remember. Gretchen Prellwitz's hair grew about a foot in one night, and Gerry O'Keefe had the curliest locks I've ever seen. Santa Claus, Chris Hodges, gave Charlie Grasso some cute unmentionables, and it was either Dicky Steeves or Carolyn Thompson who had a jump rope; at least they both had fun playing with it.

Celine: The time really flew by in the last half of our Senior year. Working on the yearbook, getting adds, taking pictures, and organizing all the material about our grand old class was an enormous job, but it was well worth it after we saw the results of all our work.

Eddie: Don't forget the part I played in the Senior Play.

Ricky: Yea, you had one terrific line to say. I remember I was brother of the bride, who was Sandra Saitto, and Jackie Phillips was the groom. Cynthia Tricinella and Richard Simpson made a perfect mother and father.

Anna: In addition to putting on a magnificent play, our class had a lively old time at——— where we had our banquet. Besides all the food, I think the History was the next best thing; of course, the Gifts and Prophecy were good, too.

Mary: Finally our big day came — GRADUATION! The day we, and our parents thought would never come. Most of us looked as if we were going to our funeral, except for Charlie Grasso; he had a big grin from ear to ear, but underneath, I think he was one of the sorriest guys to leave Agawam High.

Celine: The class picnic was just the opposite; we all acted in the spirit of true Agawam Indians, and just about everybody got ducked at least once.

Roger: Oh, (sob, sob) I can't stand it. (sob, sob) I get so emotional when I remember back to those good old days at Agawam High.

Ricky: Let's get out of here before Roger floods the room. Goodbye everybody.

Prophecy

The day was warm and sunny, and the night is cool and clear. But we wish that it were over, for as dawn is drawing near — Our weary bones are tired and the muscles all are sore, for Rosemary, Beverly, Dorine, Gerry, Wally and Theresa — are sick of washing the floor.

Wally: Gee, it's pretty tough having to clean up after our own 25th class reunion.

Jerry: Yes, but it would be a little easier if Dorine and Rosemary were here.

(Enter Dorine and Rosemary)

Irene: It's about time you got here.

Rosemary: We have just been talking with my brother Leon, who was on his way to his dance studio.

Terry: Who's his star pupil now-a-days?

Dorine: Roger Reynolds who's getting along quite well with the dancing instructors.

Bev: Yeh, I heard Dorothy Girotti, and Jackie Jones were helping out.

Rose: Gee, the refreshments were good last night! I heard they came from Cynthia Tricinella's Bakery Shop.

Terry: Is Pat Porter still the cashier there?

Bev: I'm not sure, but Marianne Grasseti and Ruth Hastings are working in the kitchen with Cynthia.

Irene: I hope Andy Hallock's gas station is open today; I need some gas.

Dorine: I hear Arthur Bilodeau, our class real estate tycoon, has leased a plot of land to Tom Letendre for his used Cadillac car lot, across from Andy's station.

Wally: Tom told me last night that he had just hired Tex Letellier to take care of the cars.

Jerry: Speaking of cars, I was at the "T & T" Stock Car Races Saturday night. A couple of the drivers were Eddie King and Harold Guidi. Harold came in first.

Bev: Aren't Tommy Trongone and Tommy Flynn co-owners of the "T & T" Race Track?

Rose: Yes, and Gretchen Prellwitz is their racing announcer.

Irene: How about some coffee?

Dorine: Okay. Let's go to Mona Moretti's Tea Room.

Wally: Hurry back, I don't want to finish this all by myself.

(Exit Irene and Dorine)

Terry: Are those rumors about Doctor John Phillips' wanting Dorine for his secretary true?

Rose: I don't know, but Dr. Richard Simpson has been trying to hire her for the last month.

Jerry: Bev. Binns and Marie Borgatti are still working in Tommy Louer's engineering firm, but he's been looking for some new secretaries as the business is growing so rapidly.

Bev: He should be getting ahead; he has Paul Langlois and Herbert Labb working for him.

Terry: Never mind the secretaries; I hope the girls hurry back with the coffee.

Wally: Just think of the delicious steaks we could have from Billy Fearn's and Jimmy Bitgood's cattle farm if they were helping us.

Rose: Be quiet, Wally! You're making me hungry.

(Enter Irene and Dorine)

Irene: Aren't you finished yet? I was hoping I wouldn't have to do any more work. I had a flat tire and the atomic research chemist, Joe Stein, stopped to fix it. It took him about two minutes.

Rose: Dorine, what ever happened to your old car?

Dorine: The last I heard after Tom Letendre bought it, was that he donated it to Arnold Matz's "Museum of Antiquated Objects."

Irene: While I was waiting for our coffee Mona told me that Flora Otto, Shirley Provost and Brenda McCullough were all married and living in a three-decker house next door to the tea room.

Dorine: She also said while you were paying for the coffee that Ann Descoteaux is the school nurse and Joyce Marieb is the college English teacher at good old A. H. S.

Wally: Stop your yaking, you old hens, and get to work.

(Rose stoops to pick up a newspaper)

Rose: Well, I'll be! No wonder Carolyn Thompson and Judy St. Jean weren't here last night. It says in their gossip column that they attended the successful opening of Barbara Marsian's play, "Tea and Tears".

Jerry: Can't you girls think of anything else but gossip!

(Bev, interested, looks on with Rose)

Bev: Oh, be quiet. Hey, listen to this. Miss Barbara Guidetti and Mr. James Argiro are making their debut, July 29, 1982 at Carnegie Hall. They will be presented by that well-known announcer and master of ceremonies, Gerald Magistri.

Terry: That isn't all Gerry does. He travels as an end man with Lenny Desrosiers Minstrel Show.

Irene: No kidding, that's as good as Charlie Grasso and Eddie Govoni. They announce the commercial for Lord Byron's Pizza Grove on T. V.

Bev: Are there going to be any pictures of the banquet in the newspaper?

Jerry: I don't know, but you can get some pictures by calling Chris and Judy at their photo mart.

Dorine: Where did they get the decorations for the banquet?

Terry: Oh, they came from Judy White's and Barbara Bonavita's Novelty Gift Shop. Wally Richard Gray was telling me last night that he and Bill Gazar run Judy and Barbara's delivery truck.

Rose: Speaking of novelties wasn't Bill Dearborn's Harmonica Combo good last night?

Dorine: Yes, Marianne DePalo's Calypso singing wasn't bad either.

Irene: How come Celine LaFleur, Joan Binninkade, Rosemarie Daigneault, and Kathy Kasper still had their nurses' uniforms on?

Bev: I think it's because their reliefs, Karen Sjostrom and Judy Clark got to the hospital late.

Jerry: Doesn't it seem funny that Dick Steeves owns the Growers Outlet now?

Wally: Yeah, he's sponsoring Mike Egan, Eugene Poggi, and John Cowles' Agawam Indian Hockey Team.

Terry: Bill Ponusky's A & P is financing Jessie James, Mary Farina, and Lucille Stoll in the Roller Derby.

Bev: Gee, we do have a lot of famous people in our class.

Irene: Did you hear that Sandra Saitto and Billy Mrosz are the famous cartoonists for Mad Funny Books, and Jean Murphy writes Melvin the Monster?

Rose: Weren't there quite a few vacant seats in the "M" section of the banquet table?

Wally: That's all General Peachy Mazzaferro's doings. He talked Joe McBride, Ed Monahan, Dick Mills, and Paul Myers into making the Marines their career.

Terry: Yeah, Gerry O'Keefe was lucky that his ship was in port the week of the banquet. It must be fun being an important admiral in the Navy.

Jerry: It would be nice to have some of those swabbies to help scrub this floor.

Dorine: I'll be right back. I'm going out for some more coffee.

Wally: Oh no you're not, we're all going to stay here until this mess is finished.
(Silence reigns in the dusty banquet hall for a period of 27 seconds, then the gossip mongers are back on the job.)

Rose: You know what, I still think Eddie Collins is cute even though he is bald from wearing his derby to court.

Bev: He must be a pretty good boss 'cause Brenda Kerber still is his secretary, but I bet she goes crazy with all that running around.

Terry: Brenda really went crazy the times Ray Lucia tried to collect because termites were eating his wood, until the Exterminating Firm of Harrison, Hartwig, and Cusson saved Ray's lumber by getting rid of the pests.

Jerry: They don't run the exterminating machine themselves, do they?

Dorine: No, Richie White is their right hand man.

Irene: I hope Lois Belville never needs Mr. Collins legal assistance; she seems so happily married.

Bev: How did you like Theresa Crupi and Lawrence Sherlaw's juggling act?

Rosemary: I thought Shirley Johnson's flea act had more audience appeal myself.

Jerry: For a while there I thought Patrolman Ricky Letendre was going to get trampled when Herkimer, the trained flea, got loose.

Dorine: Yeah, until Shirley Pond, the dauntless kangaroo trainer, captured the flea and put it safety back in his cage.

Irene: Leon and Dorothy really taught Anne Demichele, Carole Melanson, Bev Moccio, and Barbara Sliech how to do that dance of the seven veils.

Wally: Yeah, that was tremendous!

Jerry: Where did those purple and orange light bulbs come from? They were beautiful.

Rose: Oh those! They came from Mrs. Larry Hatch's Colonial Decorating Shop.

Dorine: Who is Mrs. Hatch?

Jerry: Why, you remember the former Pat Arnold.

Irene: Oh yes, didn't they have a double wedding ceremony with Sonja Schmidt and Richard Howlet at the town's Justice of the Peace, Robert Liptak's home?
(Knock at lunchroom back door. Bev goes to see who it is.)

Terry: Did Linda Slate really send these tulips from her Tulip Palace in Holland?

Wally: That's what Robert Langevin said when he delivered them yesterday morning.
(Bev comes back from answering door)

Rose: Who was it?

Bev: Oh, Roberta Menard was collecting the silverware and dishes we borrowed from her.

Dor: How did she lift those heavy boxes?

Bev: She had Nancy Candido helping her. Nancy was telling me that they met Mary Glogowski and Kathy Sullivan climbing into their helicopter to deliver baby diapers.

Irene: I bet Agnes Mitchell could use some of their services with her six kids.

Jerry: Last night Marilyn Cimma seemed to be quite happily married to our class pharmacist, Richard Labun.

Wally: Phew, After I finish this corner of the floor, I'll be all finished.

Irene: We will too, after we put these few chairs in place.

Rosemary: You can say one thing. We surely accomplished a lot in the line of gossip.

Dor: Do we have to put the equipment away?

Bev: No, Ann Dubia, the principal's secretary and her assistant, Jane Landers, said the janitors could take care of that.

Jerry: Well then, has everyone got a ride back to the "Studio."

Irene: Oh, let's not think of any more work.

Terry: After we have a cup of coffee you won't feel so bad.

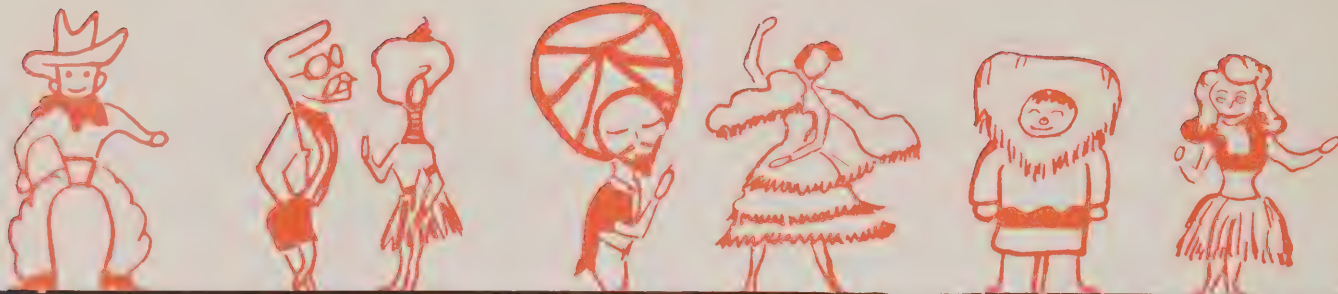

Wally: O.K. then, I guess we better go. We were lucky to get this much time off from our latest picture, "Five Brides For Two Lonely G.I.'s."

Rosemary: Want to bet we all win an Academy award?

All: Yeah!

SENIOR PLAY

On Friday evening, April 26, the annual senior play was presented. "Father of the Bride," a comedy in three acts, revolved around the complications arising from the fact that the bride and her mother wanted a large wedding while her father and the bridegroom definitely wanted a small wedding.

The production was under the very capable supervision of Miss Chrisanthe Carozzi. The play was enjoyed by everyone.

PRO MERITO

To become a member of the Pro Merito Society, one must maintain an average of eighty-five per cent for four years. As a sign of their achievements, twenty-four members of the Class of 1957 were given Pro Merito pins at an assembly in March.

The honor students of the ninth grade were familiarized with the requirements and functions of the Pro Merito Society at a special Valentine's Day party sponsored by the Society.

President Paul Langlois
Vice-President Patricia Arnold
Secretary-Treasurer Cynthia Tricinella
Adviser Miss Eleanor Smith

LIBRARY

Our school library, formed in 1947, has continually grown. We were provided with a new and complete library in the fall of 1955. Many new books and magazines are now available for the student's use.

The conference room is constantly being used for various types of meetings.

Students often display hobbies in the glass showcase. Many interesting pastimes have been exhibited.

The staff, under the capable guidance of Mrs. Dorothy Holmes, is to be complimented.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, serving as an important liaison group between students and faculty, has done much to better our school. The Council effectively conducted the annual magazine drive and the patrol system.

The first Student Council store was opened this year. Students could purchase novelties in school colors and with the school emblem.

Delegates from the Council were sent to the Western Massachusetts Association of Student Councils Convention.

President	Gerald Casiello
Vice-President	Judith Clark

BENJAMIN PHELPS CLUB

The Agawam chapter of the Future Teachers of America Organization is named the Benjamin Phelps Club in honor of Agawam's former illustrious superintendent.

The Club has undertaken many constructive projects: the collection of old eye-glasses for the Lions Club; the entertaining of the visitor from Guatamala; the publishing of a weekly schedule of events; and the aiding of other high schools to organize a Future Teachers Club.

President	Joyce Marieb
Vice-President	Dorothy Zucco
Secretary	Patricia McGrady
Treasurer	Jean Allen
Librarian	Janice Bilodeau
Adviser	Miss Emily McCormick

Senior Members: Joyce Marieb, Anna Marie Demichele, Judy Warren, and Sonja Schmidt.

PERSONALITY CLUB

This year, as in the past years, the Personality Club has had another prosperous year under the capable guidance of Mrs. Maria Sears. The Club sponsored two successful dances, the Sadies Hawkins and the Valentine Dance.

President	Patricia Arnold
Vice-President	Patricia McGrady
Secretary	Louise Mercandante
Treasurer	Ann Descoteaux
Adviser	Mrs. Maria Sears

TRI - HI - Y

TRI-HI-Y, one of the oldest and most successful clubs of the school was organized in 1934. The club consists of Junior and Senior girls under the fine leadership of Miss Miller, the adviser.

TRI-HI-Y had a very successful year consisting of a hat contest in November, a tea with the Future Teachers of America in January, a basketball game against the women faculty in March and a meeting with the Future Farmers of America in April. The girls also went to Boston to see a Red Sox ball game. The game was something all the girls anticipated. Last, but not least, was the TRI-HI-Y Banquet to induct the new members and install the new officers.

President	Anna Marie Demichele
Vice-President	Beverly Grant
Secretary	Ann Descoteaux
Treasurer	Judith Clark
Chaplain	Joyce Marieb

The members of the Junior Red Cross worked hard this year and made a project which was taken to Monson Hospital for Easter. Also the girls put on a skit in assembly for the enrollment drive, and several members of the group, together with Tech and Classical students, participated in a variety show at the Holyoke Soldiers' Home.

President	Sandra Miller
Vice-President	Jean Arnold
Secretary	Louise Mercandante
Treasurer	Joy Montagna
Adviser	Mrs. Marjorie Kelly

Senior Members: Mary Ann Grassetti, Celine La Fleur.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club consists of students who have taken or are taking Biology. The purpose of the club is to promote interest in the subject with each student doing an individual project and the group as a whole listening to guest speakers and going on field trips. The members of the club also added to the school dances by taking, and selling pictures of the students attending the dances.

President	Elaine De Mont
Vice-President	Sandra Kellogg
Secretary	Nancy Crean
Treasurer	William Baumann
Adviser	Mr. David Theodorowicz

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club, under the guidance of Mr. Buddington, is intended for those who are interested in photography as a career or as a hobby.

The club had a very busy year, starting off with a trip to Robinson State Park last fall. The members developed many pictures and enjoyed guest speakers and films at their meetings.

President Lawrence Sherlaw
Vice-President Donald Moore
Secretary-Treasurer Robert Liptak
Adviser Mr. Buddington

Senior Members: Lawrence Sherlaw, Robert Liptak, Herbert Labb, Joseph McBride.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

This year, as in the past, the International Relations Club had another successful year under the leadership of Miss Ward, the club adviser. Among the very interesting speakers the club heard were Mrs. Walter Whittum of the Springfield Council for the United Nations, Miss Gills of Guadamala, and Tim Hopps of Colrain, Massachusetts, who spoke on his summer experience in Europe.

Members of the club also had many interesting and worthwhile debates, slides, and contests.

The highlight of this year's program was the trip to the United Nations in New York City.

The club enjoyed the annual Christmas party in December and ended the year's program with a picnic.

President	Jean Murphy
Vice-President	Josianne Ford
Secretary	Anna Marie Demichele
Treasurer	Barbara Bellano
Adviser	Miss Ward

SKI CLUB

On various week-ends, the Ski Club has gone skiing at Bousquet, Mt. Snow, Blandford, Otis Ridge, and Stowe. A few of the members took a four day ski trip to Stowe.

The club has had a good season this year, and the members hope that the activities of the Ski Club will be continued next year.

President Gretchen Prellwitz
Treasurer Judith Clark
Program Chairman Karen Stephens
Adviser Miss Jennifer Mead

Senior Members: Gerald Casiello, Judith Clark, Paul Langlois, Shirley Pond, Gretchen Prellwitz, Richard Simpson, and Judy St. Jean.

AUDIO VISUAL AIDS

The object of the Audio Visual Aids Club is to teach its members to operate various machines associated with the club so that the members may assist teachers, who plan on showing a movie or using any of the different apparatus.

This year the members were taught to operate movie projectors and tape recorders and to splice films.

The club plans a trip to the Bay State Film Company and a picnic at John Magovern's camp in East Otis.

President	Walter Letellier
Vice-President	Richard Mills
Secretary	John Magovern
Treasurer	Francis Letourneau
Adviser	Mr. Roland Pressey

Senior Members: Walter Letellier, Francis Letourneau, Richard Mills.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Agawam chapter of the Future Farmers of America has been growing steadily every year. A group of the boys represented Agawam High School at the National Convention in Kansas City.

The Chapter received the National Silver Emblem Award for the first time. This award signified that the Agawam chapter is one of the best in the country.

William Rhodes became State Future Farmers of America president this year. The last two presidents of the Massachusetts Association have graduated from Agawam High School.

At the State F.F.A. convention, James Bitgood was elected State Vice-president, Larry Hatch was elected State Reporter, William Fearn and Larry Hatch were given Bay State Farmer degrees. The Chapter's exhibit placed second in the state wide competition.

This year at the annual banquet, Beverly Binns was chosen as Chapter Sweet-heart. In addition to this great honor, she was secretary to Mr. Skolnick.

The members of the Future Farmers have always tried to abide by their motto: LEARNING TO DO, DOING TO LEARN, EARNING TO LIVE, LIVING TO SERVE.

President	James Bitgood
Vice-President	Larry Hatch
Secretary	William Crane
Treasurer	Robert Boden
Reporter	Joseph Ricco
Sentinel	Richard Howlett
Adviser	Mr. David Skolnick

Senior Members: James Bitgood, William Fearn, Larry Hatch, and Richard Howlett.

THE AGAWAM MIRROR

The staff of our school newspaper, the Agawam Mirror, following the tradition of past years, published eight wonderful issues this year, giving publicity to future events and excellent coverage of past events. The staff made this possible by selling subscriptions, stationery, and advertising space.

Editor	Barbara Marsian
Assistant Editor	Janet Caserio
Adviser	Mrs. Marion Gleason

Senior Members: Patricia Arnold, Joan Binnenkade, Wallace Buben, Theresa Cardone, Judith Clark, Anna Marie Demichele, Ann Descoteaux, Dorothy Girotti, Shirley Johnson, Celine La Fleur, Joyce Marieb, Barbara Marsian, Agnes Mitchell, Mona Moretti, Gerald O'Keefe, Shirley Pond, Gretchen Prellwitz, Sandra Saitto, Judith St. Jean.

DRAMA CLUB

A new club at Agawam High School, the Drama Club, was organized to help all those students who are interested in acting.

Some of the club's activities consisted of putting on a well performed Christmas Play for the student body at the Christmas assembly, and having a make-up demonstration for the members of the club.

President Thomas Letendre
Vice-President Mona Moretti
Secretary Celine La Fleur
Treasurer Barbara Marsian
Adviser Miss Chrisanthe Carozi

Senior Members: Patricia Arnold, Joan Binnenkade, Theresa Cardone, Gerald Casiello, Judith Clark, Anna Marie Demichele, Celina La Fleur, Beverly Grant, Barbara Guidetti, Thomas Letendre, Barbara Marsian, Mona Moretti, Shirley Pond, Gretchen Prellwitz, Roger Reynolds, Judith St. Jean, Richard Simpson, Carolyn Thompson and Cynthia Tricinella.

SCRIBES

The Scribes, a comparatively new club at Agawam High School, write and criticize their own literary works. No dues are paid, but if anyone fails to turn in a composition at a club meeting, he is fined ten cents.

The club plans to publish a literary newspaper containing work they have done throughout the school year.

President	Barbara Marsian
Vice-President	Judy St. Jean
Secretary-Treasurer	Barbara Guidetti
Librarian	Lawrence Sherlaw
Adviser	Miss Eleanor Miller

Senior Members: Barbara Guidetti, Barbara Marsian, Sandra Saitto, Judy St. Jean, Lawrence Sherlaw, Cynthia Tricinella, Carolyn Thompson.

CHESSE CLUB

A new and well organized club at Agawam High, the Chess Club, has as its main activities, playing chess and teaching others to play chess.

The club meets every Monday afternoon but plays chess only every other Monday, as the other meetings are devoted to the club's business affairs.

To end the year, the members put on a chess tournament which was open to all chess players.

President	Gerald Casiello
Vice-President	Donald Moore
Secretary	Rosemarie Reidi
Treasurer	Thomas Provost
Adviser	Mrs. Dorothy Holmes

Senior Members: Gerald Casiello and Paul Myers.

FUTURE NURSES CLUB

The Future Nurses Club was formed to give the girls who are interested in nursing a chance to learn more about nursing. The club has had a very interesting and successful year under the guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Langlois.

President Celine La Fleur
Vice-President Joan Binnenkade
Secretary-Treasurer Nancy Fournier
Corresponding Secretary Anne Dubia
Adviser Mrs. Elizabeth Langlois

Senior Members: Joan Binnenkade, Rosemarie Daigneault, Anne Dubia, Celine La Fleur, Lucille Stoll.

GLEE CLUB

This year, the Glee Club has developed into an assortment of different groups, namely the Senior Octet, Senior Choralette, Sophomore Choralette, Boys Chorus, Girls Chorus, Girls Glee Club, and the Concert Chorale, a combination of Boys Chorus, Senior Choralette and Sophomore Choralette.

The big event of the Glee Club this year was presenting the musical production, "The Count and the Coed," which was very successfully presented in February. The smaller musical groups sang for a Christmas Program, and have appeared numerous times for assemblies and other school events. Other activities of the Glee Club were the Spring Concert, in which everyone participated and also the music festivals and exchange assembly with Tech High School, in which the Concert Chorale represented the entire Glee Club.

Conductor Mr. Darcey Davis, Jr.

Accompanists: Barbara Guidette, Gay Reynolds

Director: Darcy Davis

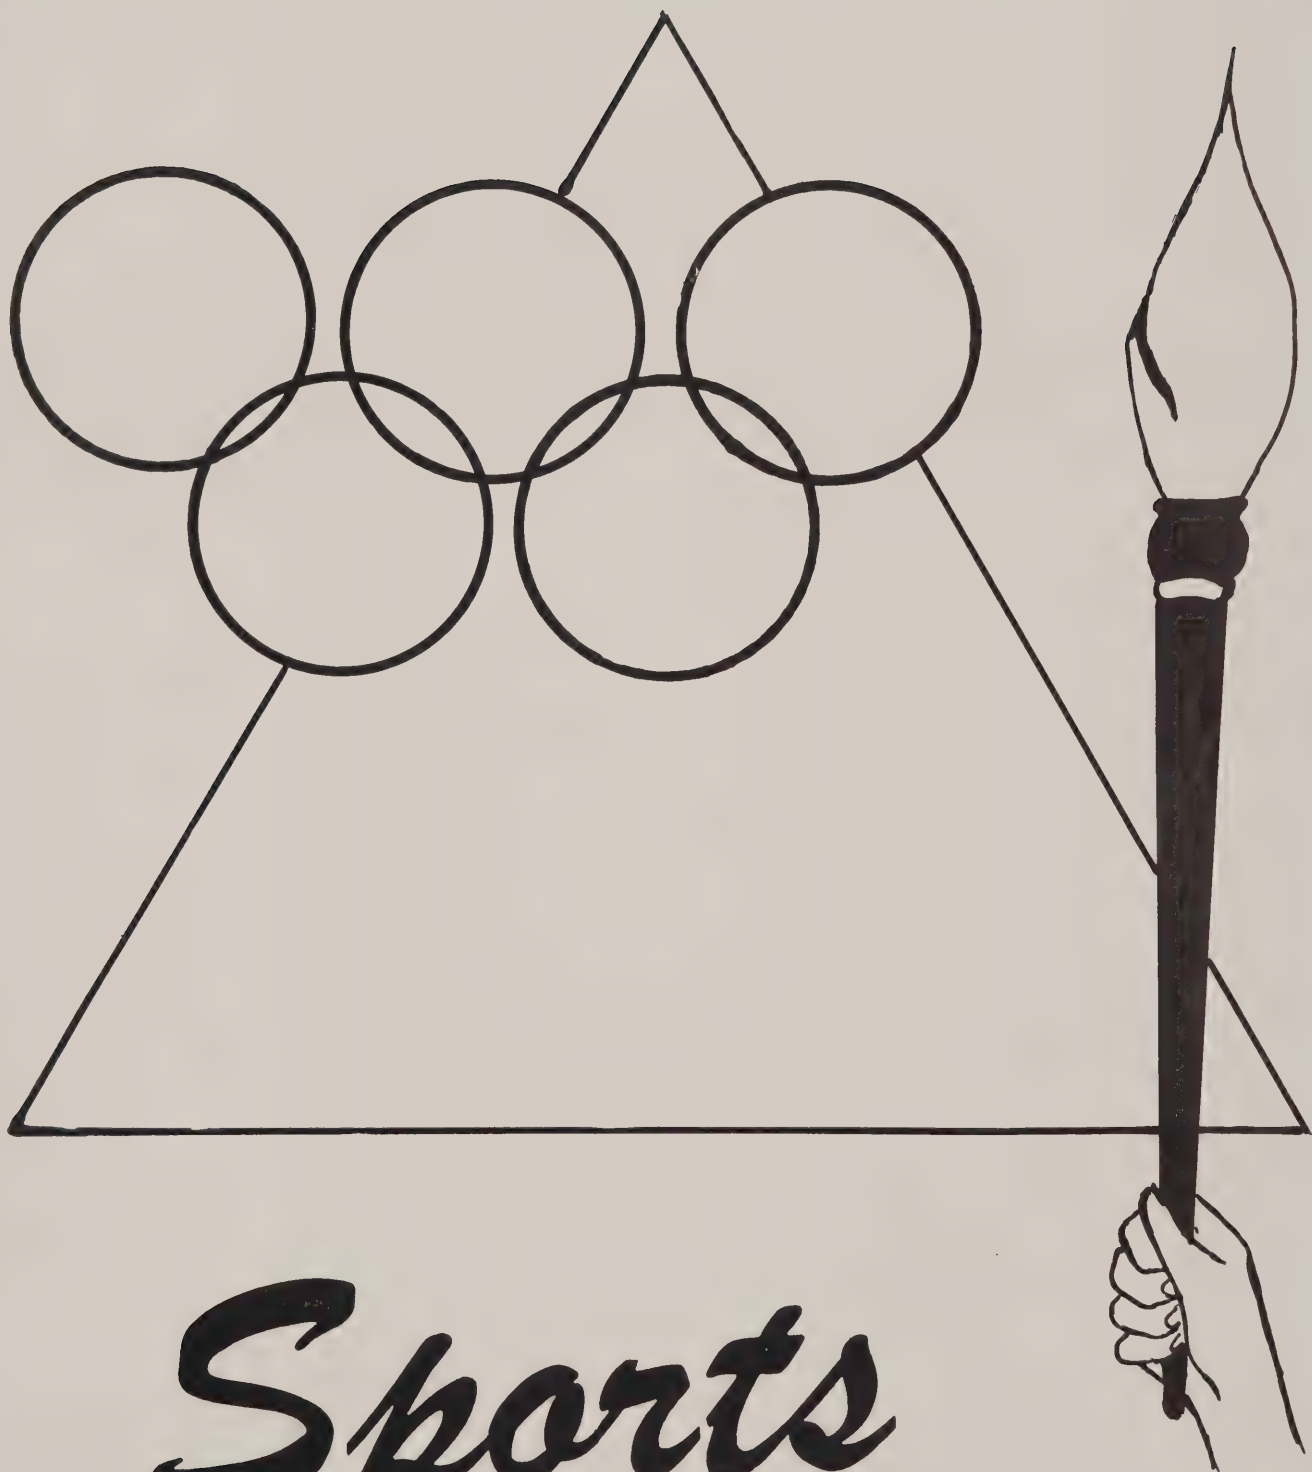

BAND

The Band, under the energetic leadership of Mr. Darcey Davis, Jr., has had another very busy year. With the help of the cheerleaders, color guards, and majorettes, the band has lent much to the color and excitement of the football games and other school events. Of course, their contribution to all of the assemblies can not be forgotten and also the new addition of the dance Band which is a very popular feature.

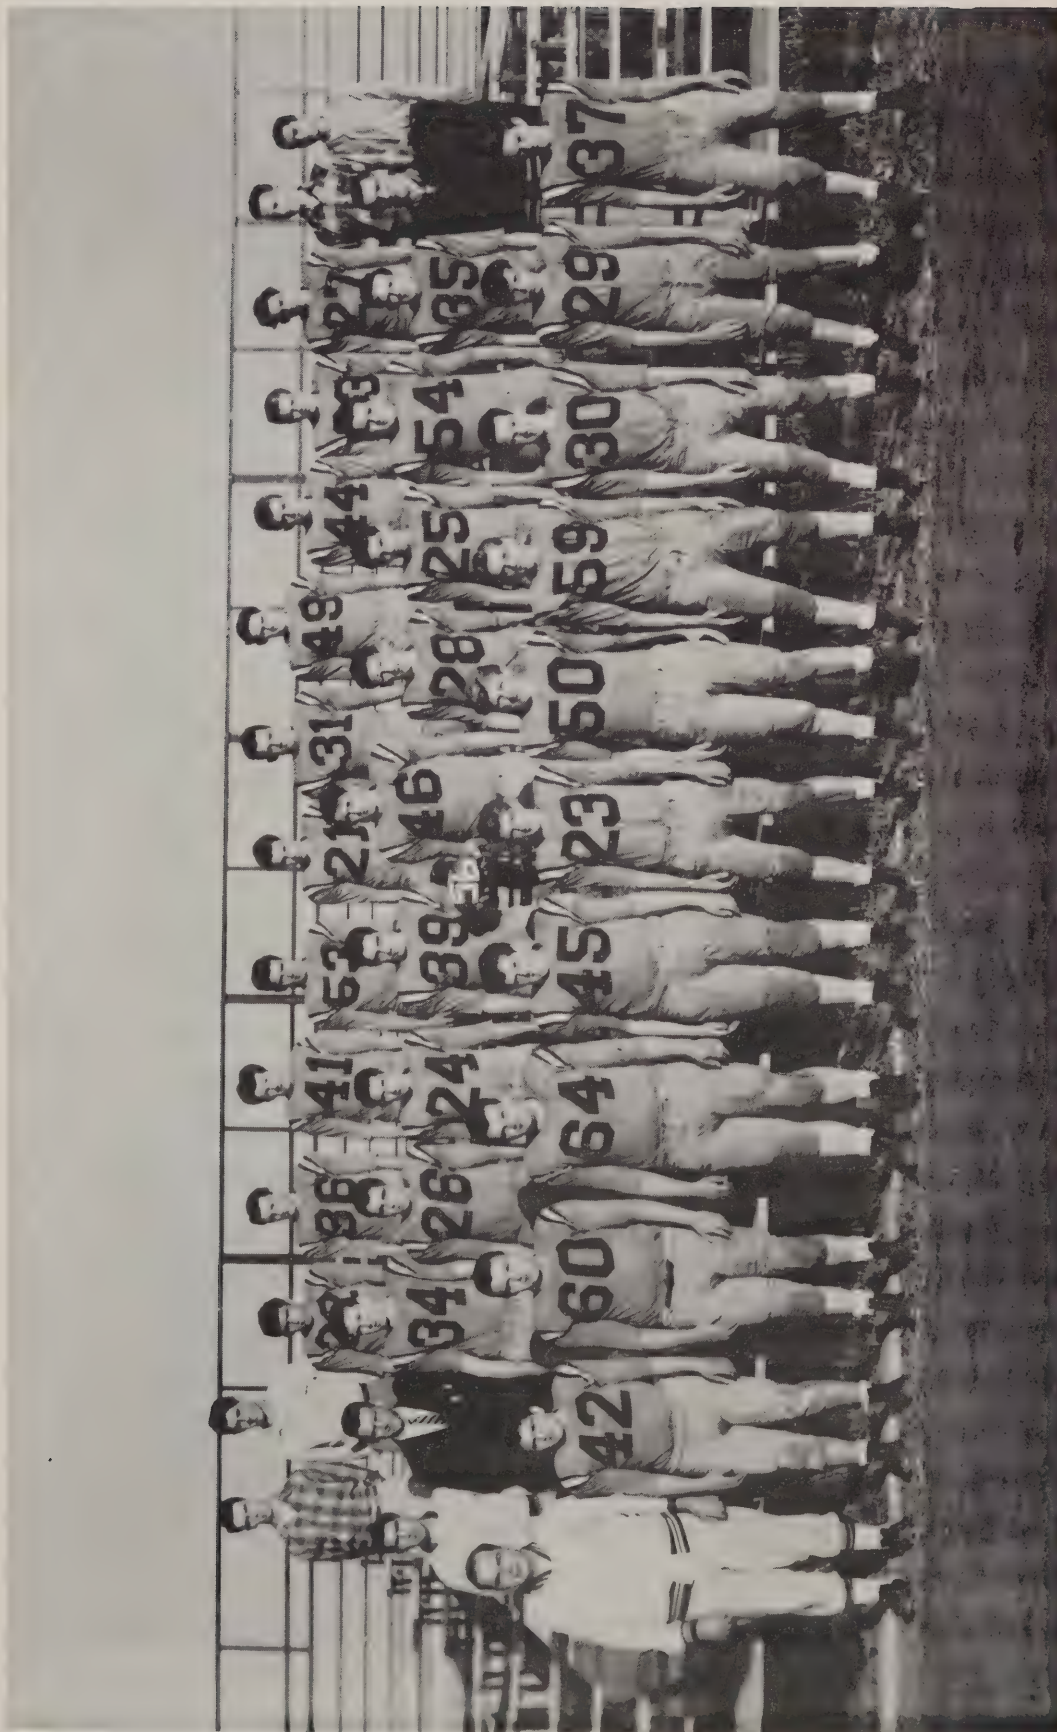

A few highlights of the year were the Western Massachusetts Music Festival, the Tri-State Music Festival, the Spring Concert, and the exchange assembly with Tech High School.

President	Gerald Casiello
Vice-President	Judith Clark
Secretary	Andy Hallock

Football

At the sound of the whistle on opening day of the 1956 football season, Agawam was off to a tremendous start. A smashing 40-12 win over Westfield showed much potentiality in the Agawam team.

The Brownies went on to win two more games. The overall record was 3 won, 1 tied, and 3 lost.

In many people's opinion, the most impressive victory was in Holyoke. The Brownies played with all of their heart and came on to win 31-6. This was the first time that Agawam had beaten the "Paper City Boys" at McKensie Stadium in 15 years.

Agawam played their home games on the new athletic field this year. The field was dedicated to Harmon Smith as The Harmon Smith Athletic Field.

Coach Leonardi had full responsibility of the team this year as head coach. He introduced a system of merit for outstanding linemen. The most impressive lineman in each game was awarded "Lineman of the Week."

WALLY

BASKETBALL

Under the capable guidance of Coach Leonardi, this year's basketball team had a record of 4 wins, and 12 losses. The team worked hard and faithfully, and, like all Agawam teams, showed great spirit and sportsmanship.

The highlight of the season was the tremendous victory over West Springfield, our chief rival. This victory ruined West Side's chances for the Valley Wheel Title

JUNIOR VARSITY

BASEBALL

Coaches Harry Leonardi and Jud Hastings greeted approximately twenty-five candidates for the opening of the "57" baseball campaign. Of this number, six are returning lettermen, and a good part of the remaining squad are graduates of last year's Junior Varsity team.

The Brownies are once again members of the Valley Wheel. A bright spot in this baseball picture is the fact that this year Agawam will be playing on the new field on Cooper Street.

Everything points to a very successful season for the Brownies.

Senior Members: Wally Bubien, Ed Govoni, Charley Grasso, Gerry O'Keefe, Joe Stein, and Tom Trongone.

Baseball Schedule

April 23, Palmer	May 17, Enfield
April 26, at South Hadley	May 21, at Ludlow
April 30, Ludlow	May 24, at Palmer
May 7, Ware	May 27, South Hadley
May 10, at West Springfield	May 29, at Ware
May 14, Easthampton	June 4, West Springfield
June 7, at Easthampton

HOCKEY

This winter, Agawam High School had their first hockey team in twenty years. The new sport was coached by Mr. Rudy Altobelli, a former hockey star at A. I. C. Although the team was not in the Schoolboy League, the boys played well in the games that were scheduled for them.

TRACK

This year marked the second revival of Track as a sport at Agawam High School after the absence of a year. Mr. Sarantopoulos led the boys well into a fine season.

The schedule was: May 4, Relays at Amherst; May 9, Triangular meet at West Springfield, Chicopee, Agawam. May 16, Quadrangular meet at West Springfield, Amherst, Longmeadow, Agawam. May 23, Longmeadow at Agawam. June 1, Western Mass. at Westfield.

The only senior member was William Mrosz.

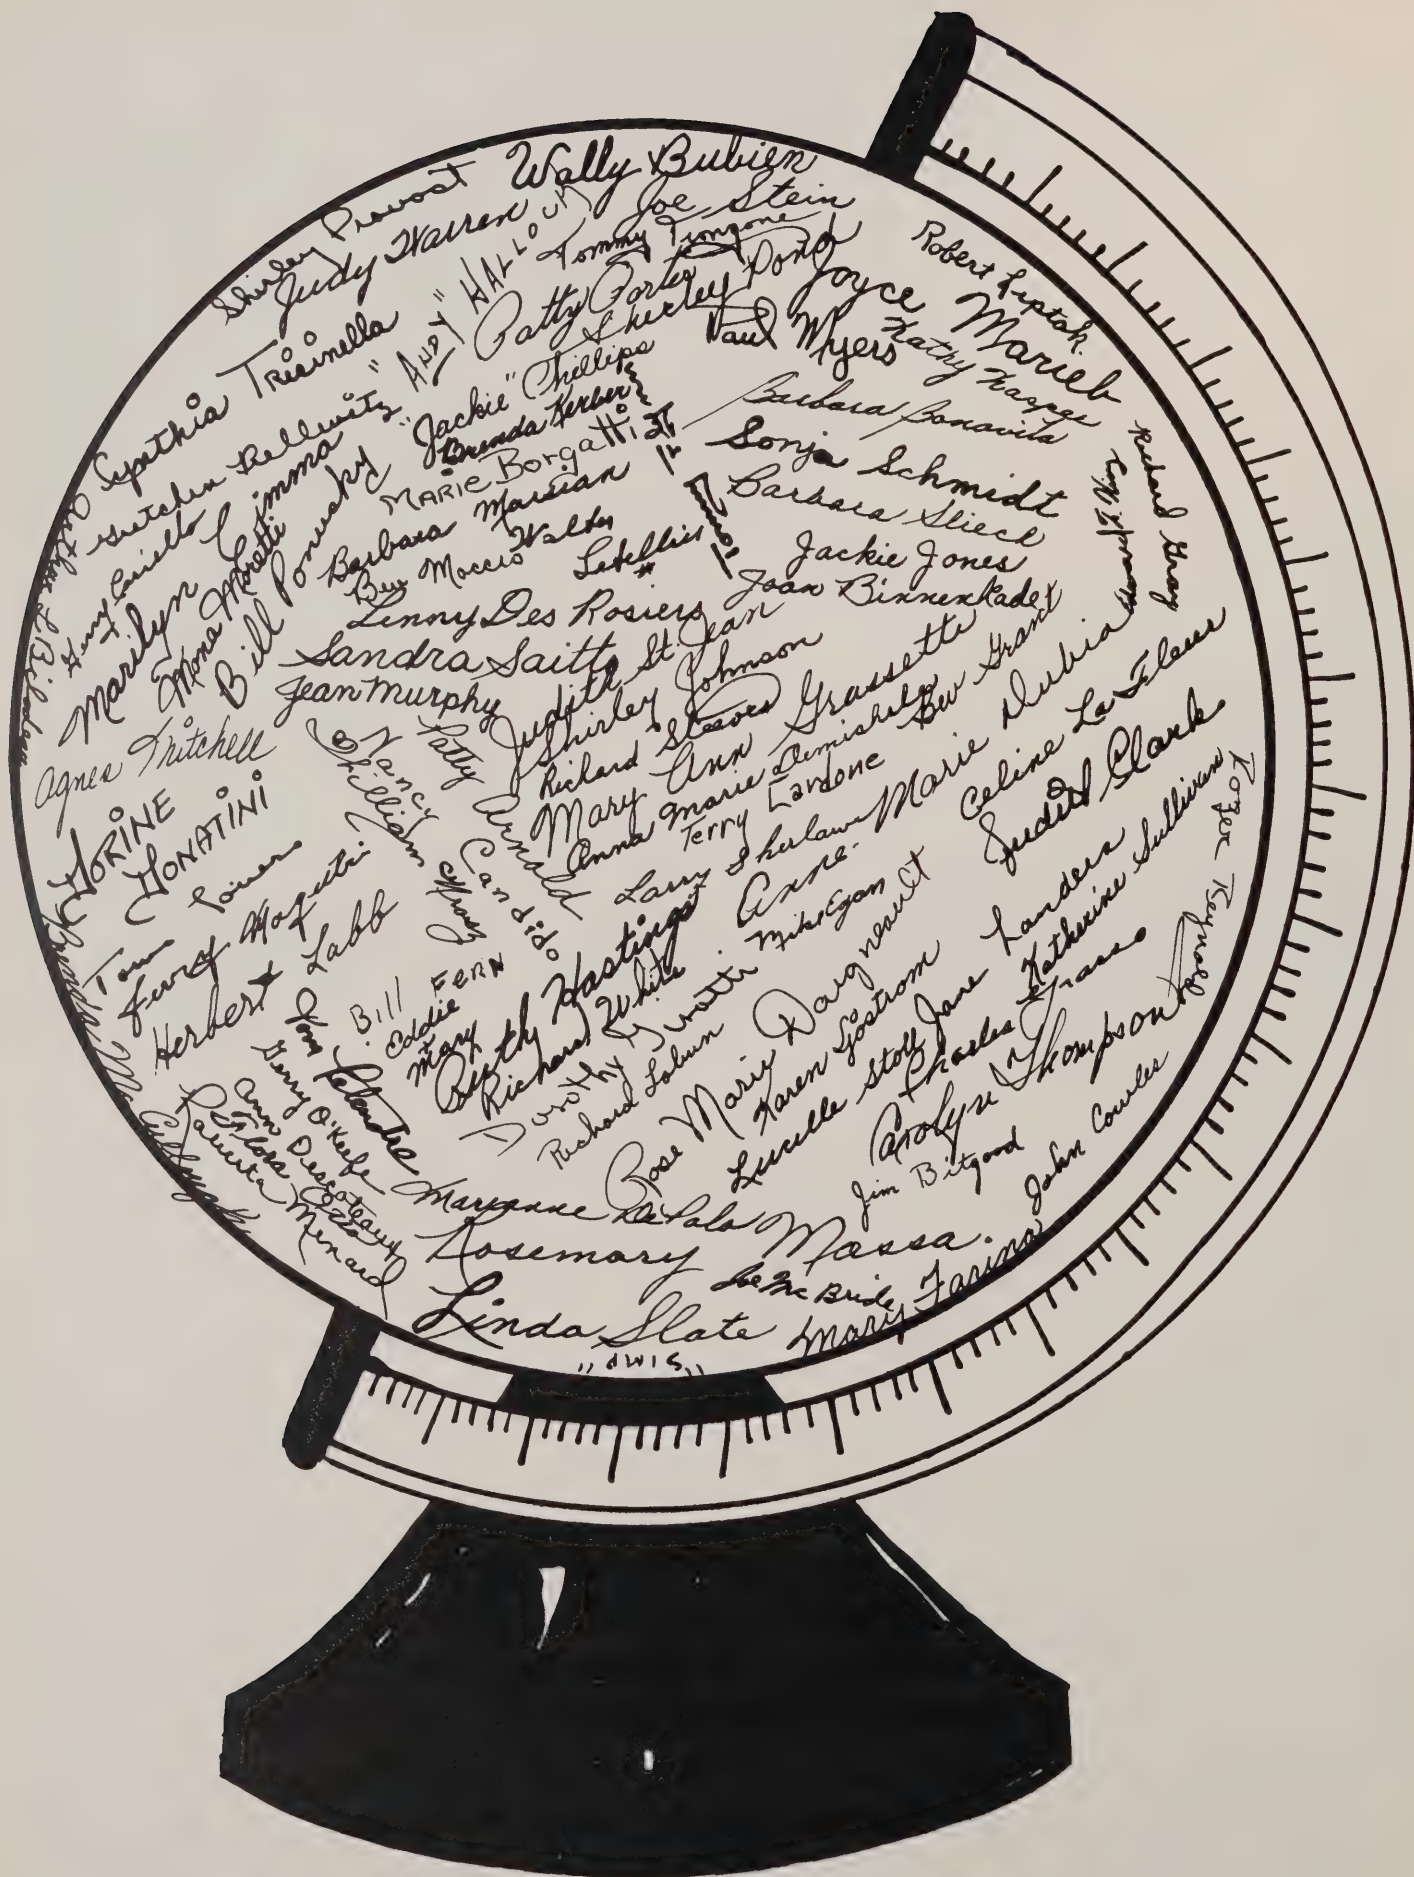

GIRLS SPORTS

Girls sports, organized in 1930, plays a large part in the development of good sportsmanship.

This year the girls played tennis, badminton, golf, basketball, and softball. An innovation was the Apparatus Club which consisted of the side horse, the rings, the bars, and the trampoline.

Director Miss Dorothy Hastings

Senior Members: Patricia Arnold, Judith Clark, Theresa Crupi, Rosemarie Daigneault, Anna Marie Demichele, Ann Descoteaux, Celine La Fleur, Joyce Marieb, Barbara Marsian, Rosemary Massa, Mona Moretti, and Shirley Pond.
